In his letter enclosing subscription money for another year, Mr. L. L. Dawson writes from Ash Grove, Mo., that he is suffering greatly with rheumatism, which will likely necessitate his going to Hot Springs. Times, he says, are very hard in Missouri and money scarce. Nearly everybody's farm is under mortgage; unless there is a change for the better I don't know what they will do.

HOME NEWS.

HOUSE for rent. Mrs. N. A. Tyree.

FARM products taken in exchange for coal. J. H. Baughman & Co.

DANKS, the jeweler, for jewelry.

WE have a full stock of Falls Branch Coal now. J. H. Baughman & Co.

THERE was a large crowd in town yesterday, but the amount of business done was not in proportion to it.

TO YOU.—You must pay your account at once. Delay is dangerous so don't take chances. M. S. & J. W. Baughman.

JANUARY 1st is past and gone and you are urgently requested to call and settle at once. I need money. H. C. Ruple.

PLEASE call and settle your account. We have adopted the cash system and must close up our credit business. W. B. McRoberts.

IF you owe the firm of Farris & Hardin you must settle it at once. Do this immediately and save yourself both trouble and expense.

FOR SALE.—One of the best family horses in Lincoln county, also good second-hand buggy and set of harness and new kitchen range. Address J. T. Sharrard, Stanford, Ky.

THE appointment of J. C. Florence to be postmaster at Stanford was sent to the Senate Friday. The office will be kept at the same stand for the present at least, Mr. F. tells us.

ACCORDING to the New York Sun's list of pensioners receiving $50 and over Martin McCormack, colored, who got $72 for total blindness, is the highest paid pensioner in Lincoln county.

THERE was a scheme on foot to confine the whisky business to hotels and to reduce the license to $250, but a canvass of the council disclosed that it would not work and it was abandoned.

$8 AND COSTS.—James Hughes and wife, of Rowland, had an altercation last week, after which the wife swore out a warrant against him. He was tried before Judge Bailey Saturday and fined $8 and costs.

NO. 33.—John Horton, brother of Miss Callie Horton, of this office, held ticket No. 33 which drew the splendid top buggy raffled off by Jesse R. Routt and it only cost him 79 cents. Mr. Horton won a suit of clothes in the same way about a year ago.

FOR DIVORCE.—On the grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, thereby indicating an aversion to her, Mrs. Maud Hughes has filed suit for divorce against her husband, James Hughes, who was fined for a repetition of such treatment a few days ago.

THE B. M. Creel Co., of Louisville, for which Mr. W. L. Evans traveled, assigned Saturday with liabilities of $100,000, assets about the same. Mr. Creel, the reputed rich man of the firm, also assigned. Inability to collect old accounts caused the suspension.

A GOOD WALKER.—The Middlesboro News says: Sarah Ann Farris, aged 48 years, has been here this week on her way to Crab Orchard, where she has step-children. She is from South Carolina, and walked all the way from her home in that State, a distance of 400 miles, on foot. A collection was made up for her here, and she was sent on her way.

THE supervisors went for the taxpayers like a thousand of brick and there's going to be a great deal of gnashing of teeth. They raised the assessment $164,172 and fixed next Friday and Saturday for those raised to show cause, if any they can, why it should not be done. There were some 200 lists raised and to notify them the sheriff will get 50 cents each or about $100.

SOME TIME ago the Louisville Post offered a prize for the best description of an "Ideal Husband," which was after considerable contest awarded to Mrs. Marion Wolford Ways, of Paint Lick. The winner is a daughter of Capt. Marion Wolford, who was decapitated by a cannon ball in a battle during Stoneman's raid into Georgia and is a niece of Gen. Frank Wolford as well as of Gov. Bradley and a woman of much literary talent.

ACQUITTED.—John Hatcock, Hayden Leach and George, Elmore and Wesley Padgett, who were arrested on warrants sworn out by Martha Jane Harris, charging them with burning her house near Highland, were acquitted in Judge J. P. Bailey's court Saturday. The woman kept a bawdy house and while there were threats of violence made against her if she did not desist, the general impression of those who heard the case was that she applied the torch herself.

THE city council at its last meeting heard reports from its officers and committees. The amount of cash on hand was shown to be $1,174.04 and Collector O. J. Newland was shown to be $906.17 behind on the collection of taxes. An order was made to pay the Water, Light & Ice Co. $1,575. V. H. Hall was granted license to retail liquor another year from Jan. 25th, at $500. M. D. Elmore and Dr. J. F. Peyton were appointed a street committee and John M. Stone and J. S. Hundley, finance committee. The board will meet again Thursday night next.

STORE-ROOM next to Farmers Bank for rent. W. P. Walton.

YOUR watch will be repaired skillfully by Danks, the jeweler.

HIGGINS & MCKINNEY are agents for Champion binders and mowers.

JOE OWSLEY, colored, was fined $5 in Judge Carson's court for slapping his sweetheart.

G. W. SINGLETON's store near Cedar Creek, was broken into Saturday night and robbed of about $8 in money.

THE horse she was driving ran away with Mrs. William Logan the other day and dislocated her shoulder, causing her great pain, but she is much relieved now.

THE Hustonville & Green River Valley Telephone Co. paid out of debt the last six months and declared a dividend of 6 per cent., so we are told by Director Dr. Ed M. Estes.

WARM, damp and rainy weather has prevailed for several days. The sun shone yesterday for a while, but the signal service said it would rain again last night and probably be colder today.

DEATH.—George C. Powell, aged 79, father of James W. Powell, died at his home near Hustonville Friday of a complication of diseases and was buried Saturday at the Powell burying ground near his late home, after appropriate remarks at the grave. His wife, who was a Miss Jones, of Casey, preceded him to the grave nine years ago. Besides the above son, Mrs. Nannie Harper and Miss Fannie Powell are left to mourn the loss of a kind and indulgent father. Mr. Powell was a member of the Christian church for years, but his health had been too feeble lately to attend regularly. He was a splendid old gentleman and his death has cast a gloom over the entire West End.

THE new city council, Messrs. J. P. Peyton, M. D. Elmore, J. S. Hundley, Peter Straub, Jr., John M. Stone and B. F. Rout met Thursday night and proceeded to business, with Mayor J. N. Menefee in the chair. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted, and then Mr. Hundley raised the question of the eligibility of Mr. Straub, because he was not a free holder. Town Attorney Varnon made a speech contending that he was and read the charter, which simply says that a councilman must be a property owner. Then Col. Welch asked to be heard. He claimed that "property holder" in that connection meant the owner of landed estate as otherwise the provision would be useless, since every man is the holder of property of some kind or other. The question was not acted upon and the body proceeded to the election of a clerk. Logan R. Hughes was chosen over the incumbent, Geo. B. Wearen, who has made an excellent one and kept a splendid set of books. Wallace E. Varnon was re-elected city attorney and A. A. McKinney treasurer. Little interest was shown in the election until the race for marshal was called. Dr. Peyton nominated I. M. Bruce; Mr. Hundley nominated W. T. Saunders and Mr. Elmore O. J. Newland. The first ballot showed Bruce 1, Saunders 3, Newland 2. On the second Bruce was dropped and the other two receiving a tie vote, Mayor Menefee broke the tie by voting for Newland. The result gives satisfaction to a majority of those who have no other interest in the matter save that which they think best subserves the public good. Mr. Newland has made a good officer and under him the town has greatly improved in law and order. In saying this, however, we do not mean to reflect on the other candidates. They would doubtless make good officials, but we are always for letting well enough alone.

The contest against Mr. Straub's eligibility seems not to be well taken, even if property-holder means nothing but free holder as he says and J. H. Carter says he owns a half interest in the Enterprise Mills and the lot it stands on. No deed appears to that effect in the clerk's office, but there is another councilman in the same boat, we learn. Lawyers tell us further that even if Mr. Straub is not a councilman de jure, he is de facto and consequently his acts are valid. A recent decision of the court of appeals in the case of annexing Belle Point to Frankfort seems to settle this case, if had not been already settled. Mr. Newland has been elected marshal and will serve his term, we haven't a doubt.

A dirty piece of business in connection with the race was the effort to keep Dr. Peyton from being present at the meeting. Before the afternoon train Thursday he received a dispatch which read as follows: "Come to Livingston at once; operation. Dr. Cooper."

As the doctor had never signed a dispatch in that way and as Dr. Peyton had had intimation that such a dispatch was to be sent, if necessary to keep him from the meeting, he began to investigate and found that no such message had been sent by Dr. Cooper, though Mr. Fish says it came all right and the operator sending it signed "Livingston."

A full investigation of the business will be made by the railroad and telegraph authorities and we hope to tell in our next who was guilty of such a disreputable as well as felonious action.

A NICE suite of rooms over Higgins & McKinney's store for rent.

THE Southern Telephone Co. is extending its line out to Ex-Sheriff T. D. Newland's on Somerset pike.

SNAKE.—Tim Hutchieson, of the Highland section, tells us that he killed a 4-foot black snake a few days ago.

SPECIAL attention is called to the advertisement of Mrs. Nora Murphy Goodknight who will teach a class in vocal culture and oratory.

THIS is the last week we will try to collect for the firm of Farris & Hardin. After this we will place your accounts in the hands of a collector. Settle at once and save costs. Farris & Hardin.

THE directors of the Crab Orchard and Danville pike met here Saturday and declared a dividend of 25 cents on the share. It was probably their last meeting as the road has been sold to the county for its bonds.

ADVERTISING PAYS.—T. L. Lillard, of Boyle, advertised in the I. J. in August for his watch which he had lost. He heard nothing of it, however, until last week, when a Negro tried to sell it to a Danville merchant, and the merchant remembering the "ad", Mr. L. now wears his watch again.

SHOOTING AT MT. VERNON.—A fight occurred at Mt. Vernon last P. M. by Elza and Pat Langford on one side and the Mullins crowd on the other, the Langfords using "Winchesters" and the Mullins revolvers. C. L. King, ex-jailer, was shot twice through hip and will probably die. He was a bystander. One of the Mullins was shot through fingers. No one else hurt. The Langfords were jailed.

IN the county court yesterday Judge James P. Bailey and Clerk George B. Cooper looked as natural as life and apparently anxious for something to do but not much business claimed their attention. L. B. Adams qualified as police judge of Hustonville and S. P. Stagg, G. L. Penny and W. B. McRoberts filed their credentials as pharmacists. F. B. Howard for the Waynesburg section and J. H. Cook for the Highland section were appointed deputy county clerks.

STOLE CATTLE.—The young fellow Adams, who served a term in the pen for stealing a hog from W. P. Grimes, is in a fair way to serve another term. He stole two cattle from Hon. J. S. Owsley Sr.'s pasture Friday night and sold them to Woods & Lynn. As the price was so low, Mr. Woods suspected that all was not right and told the man to go with him to town and he would pay him. They came, but while Mr. Woods was making inquiries about the fellow, some one he knew passed and he skipped out without the money. A warrant has been issued for him and he will doubtless soon be behind the bars.

PRESIDENT J. E. CARSON, of the Crab Orchard & Lancaster pike, objects to the strictures made upon it by the Hustonville correspondent of the Danville Advocate and asks that the following statement be made: The road has, it is true, a judgment against it, upon which the interest has been paid every year but five, during which bridges to the value of $2,500 and toll-houses and lots to the value of $1,700 were added. He further states that his is the only road examined by a commission, that the amount agreed upon for its purchase was made after inspection and the county does not buy the judgment in taking the road.

A unique company dined together in New York one evening last week. It consisted of James A. Murphy, owner of Star Pointer, 1594; Lewis G. Tewksbury, owner of John R. Gentry, 2014; and Robert J. 2014, and C. W. Marks, owner of Joe Patchen, 2014—three millionaire bachelors and owners of the four pacing kings.

Concerning deborned cattle, Swift & Co., of Chicago, says: "We do not consider hornless cattle worth more than those of the same quality and fatness with horns, except in rare cases where shippers would pay 5 to 10 cents more per 100 pounds for hornless cattle."

G. A. Benedict sold to John N. Menefee his place of 434 acres on the Lancaster pike for $1,250 and bought a 180-acre farm in Washington county for $800. He will not move to his new place for several months.
